SUPPLEMENT

Dear Judge Lasnik, I would like to express my deepest apologies to Representative Jim McDermott and his office staff members. I am so sincerely sorry for my words and actions of April 22nd. I promise I meant no one any harm and I am extremely sorry that I caused anyone to be scared. It is not my nature to act in this way, I am very peaceful. I have felt absolutely terrible about how I acted and I can promise you that I will absolutely never say or do anything like this ever again.

I have had a long time to think about the way I behaved wrongly. I spent two month in jail thinking every day about how I wish I had never said what I'd said. Now I've had seven more months on probation with a location monitoring, urinary analysis tests, home visits from my parole officer and others, and in these seven months I have complied with every order that the court has given me.

In my seven months of probation I have also been working very hard at becoming the best contributing person to society that I am able to be. I got hired at Espresso Vivace and have held down the job for six months, working extremely hard and recently getting a promotion. I have also taken it upon myself to go back to school. I am attending Seattle Central College and taking a history class and an art class.

Once more I would just like apologize for my actions, I am so truly sorry. I hope I might be forgiven. Please know that I know the errors of my behavior and I promise I will never ever do anything like this ever again. Please allow me to continue to be a functioning, contributing part of society.

Sincerely, Jasper Bell
